

I writing to you to voice my disapproval in the the FCC's current position on corporate consolidation of media outlets. I would like to know why Chairman Powell has only held one meeting to hear the views of the public. I would also like to know why Chairman Powell has denied Congress sufficient time to discuss the impact of this change. This is a major change in policy and I don't believe it should take effect without proper democratic public debate.

Sincerely,

Jim Schultz